Wherever the American soldier goes in France, he finds a Y. M. C. A. hut or dugout at his disposal.

Foster-Kleiser Co. has erected a bill board at 208 North Jersey street; cost, according to permit issued, $100.

Irving Cobb is up close to the front lines in France telling stories to American soldiers in Y. M. C. A. dug outs.

Nineteen thousand baseball bats have been sent overseas by the Y. M. C. A. for the American Expeditionary Forces.

J. H. Braithwaite has taken out a permit for the erection of a small building at Central avenue and Fessenden street; cost $100.

John Bredeen has begun work on the construction of a soft drink and cigar stand at the corner of Baltimore and Jersey streets.

American soldiers overseas are consuming the last of 300,000 packages of chewing gum sent over by the Y. M. C. A. in January.

Dr. E. R. Seely won first place in the Portland Gun Club on practice day at Everding Park, April 21st, when he brought down 25 birds in his first try in a 25 bird event. The Dr., besides being a surgeon of remarkable skill, is also mighty handy with the shot gun.

In Camp Kearney, Cal., a sick private was being made ready for the night by the nurse. When she asked him if there was anything else he wished before she left him he replied: "Yes; I should like to be kissed good night." "Very well," replied the nurse; "I shall send the orderly; he attends to all the rough work here."

The Kaiser, it will be noted, made haste to apologize to Switzerland for his murder of a Swiss diplomatist in Paris, but he has not apologized for or exhibited a single quail of conscience over his wholesale murder of devout women and children whose only offense was attending church on Good Friday.

"The loyalty demanded for days like these" will be the subject of the sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning. A full house greets our glad free Sunday evening service. Patriotic prayer meeting till the warden in victory every Thursday 8 p. m. Although nearly every Sunday calls for a special offering for patriotic and charitable objects the world around this church found at its half yearly accounting all bills paid up to date.—Reporter.

Dr. Lawrence E. Pickens, a Portland dentist of recognized skill, and ability, has associated himself with Dr. S. A. Mulvey in the dental profession in St. Johns. The new firm has still further added to the modern equipment of their rooms over the Peninsula Trust Co. office, and it is now one of the most modern and best equipped dental parlors of Portland.

St. Johns Fair Store, E. W. Foy, prop.; household utility supplies and general notions, 207 N. Jersey St. Highest quality goods at lowest prices. Next to Electric store.

Five thousand sticks of shaving soap went in one shipment from this country to the Y. M. C. A. in France for the American soldiers.

One million men every day accept the invitation of the Y. M. C. A. to write a letter home. Paper and envelopes are furnished them free.

Scores of French hills are being leveled to make baseball grounds for the American soldiers to use with equipment furnished by the Y. M. C. A.

The candidates are warming up as the campaign progresses, and for the next couple of weeks will probably make a stir in this part of the world.

Bucy says you will have to hurry if you get a box of those fine Newtown apples. We deliver. Phone Col. 528.

Every housewife in St. Johns should carefully note the large ad of the Greater Portland Association in this issue. It is a matter that all should be interested in.

Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. Gerlinger, of Portland, will speak at the Library next Wednesday afternoon on the War Saving Society. A large attendance is desired.

Dr. C. D. Hopper, who was a practicing physician in St. Johns about nine years ago, in company with his wife, made a pleasant visit at the T. J. Monahan home Sunday. He is now a captain in Uncle Sam's service, and stationed at Vancouver.

Wednesday the local ship plant broke its former record of building a hull in 54 days, when on that day they launched a hull that was completed in 49 days, and named Caponka. This is a world's record that will not likely soon be excelled.

Otto Schmidt, of Vancouver, has purchased the residence at 914 Smith avenue owned by Bonham & Currier. This firm has some other good buys in St. Johns homes to dispose of. Look at the list on the last page of this paper, and then make your selection.

Dr. Evert P. Borden, the expert dentist, has installed a nitrous oxide gas apparatus for the painless extraction of teeth in his office at the Peninsula National Bank building. This is a valuable addition to his already well equipped and well appointed dental parlors.

Up to Tuesday evening Liberty Bond subscriptions to the amount of $519,000 had been recorded at the Peninsula National Bank, from the St. Johns district. Certainly a most gratifying showing. The probabilities are that the total May 4th will reach the $600,000 mark. St. Johns goes right "over the top" every time.

The First Congregational church of St. Johns, has called Rev. J. T. Merrill, of Portland, to become its pastor. Rev. Merrill comes to us highly recommended as to character and for successful service in promoting the work of the Kingdom. He has supplied the pulpit here on several occasions and his addresses have been both interesting and uplifting. We are pleased to announce that it will be possible for Rev. Merrill to begin his work here next Lord's Day. Services announced as follows: Sunday School at 10 a. m.; preaching services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 7:15 p. m. A welcome at every service.—Reporter.

"When did you write to mother last?" This question facing the soldier in scores of Y. M. C. A. huts has made thousands of homes happier.

Soldiers overseas have a sweet tooth. The Y. M. C. A. has contracted for the entire output of a lemon drop factory to supply the demand of the men in khaki.

When a candidate for office begins to knock his competitor for the same office he begins to weaken his own cause. People these days have little patience with the knocker.

A mountain of chocolate, if such a thing existed, would be consumed by the American soldiers overseas in less than two years, according to the estimate of a Y. M. C. A. war work secretary who spent a single day behind the counter in a Y. M. C. A. hut in France.

Contrary to the general impression there is no national annual legal holiday. All holidays are made legal by State statute. Even Thanksgiving Day is a legal holiday only when made so by a law of the State. The President's proclamation merely announces the day.

It is with deep regret that we learn just as we were about to go to press this Friday, morning of the death of Arthur Horsman, only child of Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Horsman, who passed into the Great Beyond about seven o'clock this morning. The cause of his death was pneumonia, and he was about 21 years of age. Despite the fact that his health had never been of a robust nature, he was always cheerful, good natured and optimistic. He had reached the age when life assumed its rosier hue, and when the joy of living is at its height. The heartfelt sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Horsman in this their hour of deepest sorrow.

While you are able to work and earn money, why can't you put some of it in the bank? You can open a bank account with a little money and you can add little sums that you are now fiddling away, until some day you'll find it has grown into a big sum, and it will work for you in your old age. Come to our bank.
